PECIAL FROM JACKSON.....

TUESDAY, JULY 29, 1969

AT A PUBLIC HEARING TUESDAY, BEFORE THE STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION IN JACK-SON, AN APPEAL BY ROBERT CLAPP, FOR THE REVERSAL OF A RECENT DECISION, IN WHICH EUGENE LADNER, COUNTY SUPERIN-TENDENT OF EDUCATION FIRED HIM, WAS

THE HEARING WAS CONDUCTED BY THE STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION, CONSISTING OF STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF EDUCATION GAR-VIN JOHNSTON, ATTORNEY GENERAL, A. F. SUMMER, AND HEBER LADNER, SECRETARY OF

LARRY LENOIR, ATTORNEY FOR CLAPP PRE-

SENTED ARGUMENTS, TO SHOW CAUSE AS TO WHY THE ORIGINAL CHARGES AGAINST CLAPP WERE IN ERROR, LENOIR STATED THAT THE THREE CHARGES MADE OF CLAPP WERE: 1.11N-SUBORDINATION 2. NON-COOPERATION 3. PHY-SICAL (ATTACK) ABUSE. HE (LENOIR) FURTH-ER CONTENDED THAT THE TESTIMONY WHICH HAD BEEN PRESENTED AT AN EARLIER HEAR-ING IN HANCOCK COUNTY DID NOT ACTUALLY FAVOR EUGENE LADNER.

LENOIR MADE AN ATTEMPT TO ENTER INTO THE RECORD. MINUTES OF THE JULY 21ST HANCOCK COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD MEETING, BUT LADNER'S COUNSEL OBJECTED, AND THE

OBJECTION WAS SUSTAINED BY THE ATTOR-NEY GENERAL, HOWEVER THE ATTORNEY GE-NERAL RULED THE INSTRUMENT COULD BE ENTERED AS AN EXHIBIT.

AT THIS HEARING THE TRANSCRIPTS TAKEN AT THE PREVIOUS HANCOCK COUNTY HEAR ING WERE PRESENTED TO THE STATE BOARD. WITH NO FURTHER WITNESSES BEING CALLED.

AFTER LENOIR HAD PRESENTED HIS CASE BEFORE THE BOARD, ATTORNEY RANDALL JONES. REPRESENTING LADNER PRESENTED HIS CASE TO THE BOARD.

AFTER HEARING THE PRESENTATIONS OF BOTH SIDES. THE BOARD TOOK THE CASE UN-DER ADVISEMENT - FOR A LATER DECISION.

"God in probably the guiding force behind man's advancement into space."

Jackson Balch, manager, NASA's Mississippi Test Facility, made the statement Sunday when speaking to an 'All Faiths' congregation of about 50 persons in the Hancock North Central School gymnasium.

Balch said the closer the engineers and scientists working on the nation's space probes come to understand how more things work and achieve their space goals, the more they see further and further into the something behind it all.

It is touching to know our Creator thinks big and made us in his image to figure things out, Baich said, He said the better I come to know these men the more I realise they are devoted to understanding the meaning of our Lord.

"Operation Clean Town" Formed By Bay Citizens

Last Friday several interested citizens of Bay St. Louis met at City Hall to organize one of mayor Warron Carver's main projects. Carver had spoken on several occasions, before and since taking office. of the need for a concentrated effort to make Bay St. Louis a clean town in all respects.

It had been felt by Carver and other interested citizens, that before the city can attract new people, a major clean up effort will have to be made. The group felt that the mayor would be the most likely candidate to head the committee as gonoral chairman. Various other vice-chairmen were placed in charge of the following: Maurice Millor, vacant lots and dilapidated buildings; Mrs. R. F. Gray, boach front-north

Arriving home, Mrs. Maurigi said she was attempting to prepare the evening meal when Maurigi again slapped her, grabbed her under the chin and said, "I could kill you if I wanted to."

When Maurigi left the house. Mrs. Maurigi said she locked the front door and also secured a chain night latch.

About ten minutes later, she testified that Maurigi returned and used his key to open the door which was held then only by the chain latch. She said she looked through a window and said she was frightened by the look on her husband's face. Mrs. Maurigi said shepickod up a .22 caliber pistol and fired one shot through the door. Sho tostified it was her intont only to frighten Maurigi. When she found she had fatally wounded him instead with a bullet in the chest, the defendant said sho summoned an ambulanco.

Mrs. Maurigi tostified to a long period of domestic discord. Sho said sho had filed for a divorce in June 1968. but dismissed the action in Octobor 1968.

United Fund Campaign Time Draws Nigh

bу ...

Novillo R . Jecob Public Relations Officer Hancock County

Port and Harbor Commission

Had a phone call last week saying we may have put the Clormont Harbor post office in bad light over our reference to return mail. This was not our intention, The letter in question was returned to us simply because the postoffice was unable to deliver by virtue of their being unable to locate the addressee. That's all. Whenever a postmaster is unable to fulfill the face instructions on any letter it is his duty, as we understand it, to 'return to sender.

This is all that happened and all that was meant. Off we go into this week's missive.

Fellow called J.R. Shadoin is going to be a busy beaver a little later on this year. He is the campaign chairman of the Hancock County United Fund, and that job isn't easy.

Oddly enough the United Fund is not a fund in itself but a collection house for member organizations who depend on charitable donations for survival. In Hancock County these include, the Retarded Children's Assn., Catholic Charities, Inc., Emergency Relief Fund, American Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Mental Health Assn., Blood Bank, Camp Onward, United Services Organization, and Gulf Coast Family Counseling Agency.

The idea behind this banding together into one fund raising drive is to eliminate the need of eleven single campaigns and cut the cost of raising money to a bare minimum. For example, those local charitable organization which still operate outside the United Fund find it costs anywhere between 15 to 30 cents on the dollar. The UF average is two percent. The slogan of UF is, One gift works many wonders. Let's take a look at why. This year the objective or goal of UF is to raise $27,595. This amount is to be split eleven ways in accordance with the approved budgets of the member agencies.

In other words, each dollar given to UF works hard. It works for the veteran and his family, the retarded child begging for the chance just to understand simple things, the child in need of a home, the family or transient in need of emergency funds, the boy and girl scouts, nearly 1,000 strong, the mental health patient, often confused and frustrated with nowhere to turn; the blood bank, whose work means life; the needy child, whose only hope for a holiday and break from normal cares and woes lies in Camp Onward, the married couple, whose marriage is coming apart at the seams, and, finally, the serviceman to whom any touch of home is worth the money at any

All this is what your dollar buys a piece of, no matter how small or large the donation. One gift indeed does work many wonders. Earlier this week we asked Mrs. C.R. Beyer, fund secretary, to show us how the Hancock County set-up works. Mrs. Beyer, promptly set about to paint a complete picture of the local United Fund and we recommend that anyone with a question phone her for a quick answer. Apart from Volunteer Campaign Chairman Shadoin, all sorts of people lend their services free of charge to UF to make the Powell Glass, jr., is special gifts chairman, Mrs. James D. Ryan, board president; and Rev. John T. Dearing, vice president. Others on the board of directors, all elected at an open meeting each January, are, Edward Hall, H. J. Blackledge, James Drummond, Richard Thomas, Perry Gibson, and J. A. Weinfurter, also a vice president. In addition there are a whole host of volunteer field workers.

Aiming at a goal of $27,595, to meet board approved agency budgets, the UF will pay each agency on a quarterly basis, after inspecting the quarterly financial reports of each group.

Broken down, the goal figure includes $4,625 for the American Red Cross; $4,020, Hancock County Retarded Children's Assn.: $3,500. Catholic Charities Assn., a group that serves all faiths; $2,750, Hancock County Emergency Relief Fund; $2,750, Boy Scouts, Cypress District; $2,750, Girl Scouts, Gulf Pines Council, $1,500, Gulf Coast Mental Health Assn., $600, Hancock County Blood Bank; $500, Camp Onward; $500, Gulf Coast Counseling Agency; $500, USO.

That's a goodly bunch of charitable causes and we have all probably had to call on at least one in the past, and will probably use more in the future. It is easy to shrug off each and every one and say, "I don't need them!" Right now might be true.

If this hurricane lurking in the Atlantic comes ashore hereabouts you may be the first one to muster at the Red Cross

IF IS A BIG WORD

Some time ago. Ed Ferris sent us a reprint and it got lost on our stick file. We found it while cleaning up this week,

"What a Wonderful Country This Would Be! If every politician voted for the security and future of his country instead of for his own next election, If every "liberal" worked for the financial soundness of his country instead of for the socialist idea of dragging everyone down to the same drab low level,

If every business manager said and did what he knew was right rather than what he thinks the union or his stockholders or the U.S. Department of Justice or whatever would like him to do or sav.

If every workman did his best day's work because he knows that is the only honest way to earn his wage, and the way to rebuild his country's strength.

If every voter voted for America, not for "who will give me the most." The old American dream has given way to our present-

This may be denied, but President Nixon blocked the space agency from recognizing the late President Kennedy's part in the historic moon landing.

It was Kennedy who set the goal of landing the first men on the moon by 1970, and space to read this Kennedy pledge immediately after they landed on the moon. Nixon, however, threw this out. Space officials also suggested that the lunar landing craft be called the John F. Kennedy and that the command module remain the Apollo for easier radio identification Again Nixon said no lie sent orders that the ships be called Lagle and Columbia. Both orders were transmitted by White House aide Bob Haldeman, the ex-advertising big shot, who also composed the plaque that was signed by President Nixon and the three astronauts, Space officials resisted the idea of taking the plaque to the moon until Haldeman informed them brusquely that it was the President's wish. It was Frank Shapespeare, new chief of the U.S. Information Agency, who suggested that President Nixon put through his historic phone call from the White House to the moon Space officials privately opposed the idea because it identified Nixon with the lunar landing, which he had never supported. However, Nixon like the chance to get in the act so much that he even wanted to narrate the moonwalk. His idea was that he would officially accept the astronauts' description of the moon in behalf of the American people. Space officials finally talked him into limiting his telephone remarks to two-and-a-half mi-

This part of the lunar ceremony, incidentally, left a bad impression overseas. Many foreigners got the impression that Nixon was horning in on history to share the astronauts'

It has already been reported that Nixon also wanted to dine with the astronauts on the eve of the moon flight. Space Director Thomas Paine discouraged this. But Nixon seriously considered going ahead with the dinner anyhow. The space agency also suggested that it would be better if the President did not fly to the Pacific to welcome the astronauts back when they splashed down; Nixon ignored the suggestion and sent word that he intended to be present. In short, he wanted Richard Nixon to be in all the spotlights on the as-

tronguts. SPACE WEATHER FORE-

CASTS One possible benefit of the moon flight was policed out by Sen. William Sexte of Ohio last week, He told the laternational total $25 billion cost of the moon program.

RUSSIA STILL IN RACE The Russians can't be counted out of the space race yet. They have tested a three-compartment spaceship, the Soyuz Three, which is bigger, roomier and probably superior to the Apollo moonship.

Intelligence reports also concentrating on building a space station as the first step toward interplanetary travel. Their scientists point out that it will be more efficient to send men to the planets from a station in orbit. Less rocket power would be needed to reach Venus and Mars.

MARS SPECTACULAR

The next space spectacular, if there isn't a last-minute failure, will be a television close-up of the planet Mars. Earlier TV pictures showed Mars to have a bleak, cratered. moon-like surface. However, these showed only an isolated section of the planet's surface. Mars watchers say the planet has polar caps. clouds, dust storms and evidence of vegetation. KENNEDY MISFORTUNE Members of the Kennedy family and their spokesmen are distressed and indignant over hints in newspapers that Sen, Ted Kennedy was involved in a drunken affair with Mary Jo Kopechne before the auto accident in which she died.

They are particularly incensed at Newsweek magazine; which reported that the Senator was notorious for his "indulgent drinking habits, his dares. devil driving, and his everready eye for a pretty face."

Such matters had not been reported previously in the public press, partly because the American people--particularly newspapermen--are generally tolerant about the morals of men in high places--until they get caught. Then we can become suddenly critical, perhaps because of anger at seeing an idol tarnished. Thus it probably would have been kinder to have reported long ago that Ted Kennedy was risking trouble if he did not curb his personal habits. If there had been newspaper criticism of his conduct before the Kopechne tragedy, that tragedy might never have happened; he might-have needed the criticism. But now it is too late, This column agrees with Sen. Ed Miskie of Maine that Teddy should not be judged until all Platform Association conven manner in which Kennedy top in Washington that if our spokesmen have stalled ontelling the spokesmen would nake the Wall really become the evidence is in, yet the Six months now have elapsed since Richard Nixon served on himself a summons to greatness. The greatest honor history can bestow, he said, is the title of peacemaker. He is little closer to winning that title today then he was six months ago, and some of his options are running out.

The point is close at hand, if indeed the point hasn't passed, when Vietnam becomes "Nixon's War." It bears grim comparison with baseball. When Nixon came on the mound, relieving Lyndon Johnson, he couldn't have lost the war; the runners on base were Johnson's runners. The billions down the drain, the thousands of dead and wounded, the terrible disillusion of the young--none of this, in January, could be charged to Richard Nixon.

That situation no longer obtains. Six months ago, while the ink was drying on his oath, the President might have quit Viet--bugged out, as they say, and set in motion a plan of inclaim that the Russians are stant withdrawal. Such a decision would have involved domestic political risks, in the charge that Nixon had surrend- especially American wars--and ered the free people of Vietnam into Communist hands, but there would have been offsetting factors. Memories are short. In time, it might have been recalled merely that Johnson got us in and Nixon got us out. And who knows? Thus jarred, the South Vietnamese might themselves have reached a not intolerable accommodation with Hanoi.

That option expires, Nixon no longer can wash his hands of Johnson's war. Six months of this dirty business now can be charged to the new administration. The cost goes on. Mendie. Nothing moves in Paris. The President's overtures of May 14 have gone unanswered. The basic orders to General Abrams remain unchanged: "They are very simply this: He is to conduct the war with a minimum of American casualties." Some combat troops have been withdrawn; others will be withdrawn next month, but over-all the im-simply drift along.

This is not good enough. Wholly apart from moral and humanitarian considerations. sound reasons of politics demand a new climate of crisp decision. The congressional elections of 1970 are barely 16 months away; some of the key primaries are less than a year in the future. Nixon no longer is buying time; he is selling it. Unless this war is settled--not "on the way to settlement," but settled-before the end of this year, his dreams of Republican gains in the next Congress may be foreclosed. The President is a contemplative man. As he flies around the world, in the long quiet periods when he sits alone. perhaps he will recur to fundamentals. Perhaps he will reflect on the history of wars-- upon the nature of this war. He has publicly ruled out "a purely military solution on the battlefield," but history may suggest to him new approaches that will have the same effect. The war in Vietnam is in essence a war of insurgency. Such wars cannot be waged by "battlefield" tactics. The object is not so much to think large as it is to think small: How can these villages be made secure by night and day? How can the South Vietnamese be trained--swiftly trained--in the techniques of local police con-

Well, it will be said, such training has been going on for months. That is what the President said in May. Yet doubts remain. Combat officers acquire great skill and experience--and are promptly rotated out of the theater. Returning veterans voice their dismay that proved tactics of guerrilla warfare--tactics taught to special forces--are not followed in Vietnam. The logistical "fat" goes untouched. In the view of competent observers, at least a third of the support forces could be removed at once, with a resulting gain in efficiency. Six months ago, if the war were lost, Lyndon Johnson would have lost it. Now it is Nixon's war to win or lose. There is not the slightest hint that it can be won at Paris. That leaves Vietnam. And whether the goal is "victory" or "successful Vietnamization," Nixon will have to pursue his hopes, his title, and his party's future there.

Look at the streets in the county; look at the waterholes in the county; look at all the weeds and places for mosquitos to hatch.

Look at all the schools but don't worry about them, we'll put another mill on tax payers. Who owns the newspaper? Now we hear Mr. Ed Ortte and you know the rest, we only get the news they want to give us -- all good for them, no good for us.

Who owns the 62 acres of land that the board wants to buy for the park? We guess one of the family or the Gexes. For instance look at Gov.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo: This letter is in answer to Mr. Ezell Lee's erroneous. misleading article which appeared in the SEA COAST ECHO

Frankly I feel sorry for Mr. Ezell Lee who, having lost his job at Hancock North Central School, naturally feels dejected and frustrated. But why is he so belligerent in trying to destroy the image of the school to which he professes to be so attached by low-rating the School Board, its president, the Superintendent of Education, and several of the fine teachers and coaches who have done such splendid work? I refer to Mr. D. J. Martin, Coach Roland Ladner, and Coach Paul Thomas, Although Mr. Lee has lost his position, why does he want to destroy these successful men? He reminds me of the soldier yelling "Yalt!" to the regiment he was marching with. The commanding officer asked the soldier why he halted the regiment. The soldier replied, 'They're all out of step with me.' Sincerely my real reason for answering Mr. Lee's letter is to clarify for the public his misleading statements. In reference to the appointment of Mr. Austin Kirkland as Principal of Hancock North Central School: this was not a sneak deal; four members of the Board realized that H. N. C. would soon open and that it was necessary to fill important vacancies. The Attorney General ruled that a temporary Principal could be appointed to make recommendations for filling these vacancies. If we failed to make the appointment at this time, the Superintendent would do so next month, subject to the Board's approval. Four Board members had already agreed on the reappointment of Mr. Martin and Coach Ladner. If we had waited longer and if Mr. Clapp should be reinstated, he would not recommend these gentlemen. Since there was no mensible reason for delay, we made the appointment,

After Superintendent Ladner contacted Mr. Kirkland, I lained to him, the Board, and the people present the and ability. We know this is the reasons for taking this timely aim of Mr. Ortte, Mr. Ladner, action. This business was and the Board. handled in an honorable man-Cosci, capped by the commenced by the co would also have been reappointed if he had not already ac-

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

Having been in attendance the last Hancock County School Board meeting, I felt it my duty to write and remind a concerned public of a statement made by board chairman, Ed Ortte.

Mr. Ortte said to the effect that he is on the board of a multimillion dollar corporation and that his time is too valuable to be fooling around with petty school problems and things as unimportant as this, Mr. Ortte also stated that he was in a business bigger than the Hancock County School System. It is my opinion and the opinion of many of the individuals with whom I have discussed this statement by Mr. Ortte that he forgets two important factors when he makes state-ments such as this. First, there Park of is nothing more important than the education of our children and if Mr. Ortte is not willing or does not have the time to devote to school board problems then he should resign. Second, Mr. Ortte sought I could go on writing like his school board position by his own choice and feeling as he does about the pettiness of the school problems he should do himself and the children of know in Hancock if the paper Hancock County a great service and resign. Many of the petty problems guess the smell will get much about which Mr. Ortte complains are directly related to his unwillingness to take a stand and resolve the problems when they come up. The board president is responsible for carrying on board meetings in an orderly and business like manner and any citizen who has had the opportunity to attend a Hancock County School Board meeting in the last few years knows that Mr. Ortte does not follow > this procedure. Mr. Ortte has done nothing to eliminate the political implications from the Hancock County School System and has on several occasions been involved in political maneuvering that have further complicated our school problems in Hancock > County. I will be accused of writing this letter as a result of my wife not being recommended back as secretary at Hancock North Central and I would like to state now that she did the best tob that she could and that the people who worked closest with her have expressed their profound regret over her loss in a political move that Mr. Ortte told me he didn't even realize was happening, FRANCIS L. LEE Hancock County, Miss.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR THE PEOPLE SPEAK

Editor, Sea Coast Echo In the Sea Coast Echo's edition of July 24, 1969, we read an article entitled "Our Readers Write". In the article, a disgruntled ex-school teacher of Hancock North Central criticized to a great extent the President of our School Board, Mr. Ed P. Ortte, our Board in general and our County Superintendent of Education. This article must be answered.

Mr. Ed P. Ortte, President best more likely best more like of the School Board, has given complete with a good many productive years bleachers to the children of Hancock County. People who are in a terminal position to know, will show proof busses is the

of this productivity. Mr. Ortte has been very instrumental in getting a lot done that have been for Hancock North Central, (the portation new bus barn, our new field house, added classrooms, new continue to buses, our excellent football being four stadium, and many more mate- to the fleet the rial things to our community). but most of all we believe Mr. Ed P. Ortte, the School Board with our County Superintendent of Education, Mr. Eugene Ladner, has only the interest of our children at heart.

Since the controversy in our school system started over three months ago, people of this area have been reading a lot about how our County Superintendent, along with some members of the Board and Mr. Ed P. Ortte, President are trying to break up our school system. The truth of it is, we have never seen men work more diligently to preserve and improve a system as these men have done.

For once, we feel politics are on their way out of our school system. We believe that in the future teachers will be hired on their qualifications

We would like to commend Mr. Ladner on his unfaltering stand at Hancock North Central. He knows that before progress can be made, obstacles have to be removed. This is in the process, We look for and expect big things in the near future, and these things will come to pass as iong as we have men such as left Ladner an 6 Mr. Orthe to carry them through

E.V. Luke, President Jury Report ... Of New Association

production of the second se

At a meeting of buffer zone property owners July 22nd, at Nicholson, Miss., E. V. Luke was elected president of the newly formed Miss. Test Facility Property Owners Asso-

The next association meeting is scheduled for August 2nd, at 10 o'clock a.m. in the Flat Top Community Center, located 5 miles east of Picayune near the Gus Frierson home. The purpose of the meeting is to organize a committee whose duty it will be to petition the government for the return of buffer zone property. Interested parties may attend.

(Cont. from Page 1-A.) sors to increase parking facili-ties surrounding the Courthouse so that people who have business in the Courthouse may have parking facilities available. "We find that the Courthouse is in need of termite control and we recommend to the Board of Supervisors that they enter into a contract with a reputable termite treating company to inspect and treat the Courthouse for termites as needed.

"We the Grand Jury inspected the jail area and found generally that the prisoners were well cared for, that the jail is being maintained in a satisfactory manner by the Sheriff. We find however that the lavatories and commodes in the iail are in a bad state of repair and need replacing.

"We would also like to recommend Sheriff Fred Curet and others responsible for the addition to the jail facilities, which addition would include separate cells for women and children, juveniles who will be kept separate from the adult male prisoners when this addition is completed.

OLD FOLKS HOME

'We the Grand Jury went as a body to inspect the County Old Folks Home and found that it is being operated in a very satisfactory manner b y Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fricke. We would like to commend Mr. and Mrs.

Robert T. Sayle Elected To Gulf National Staff

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Gulf National Bank announced today that Robert T. Sayle had been elected Assistant Vice President of that institution at the Board of Directors meeting held on July Sayle joined Gulf National in June of 1967 after graduating from Mississippi State University where he received his BS degree in General Business. Prior to attending Mississippi State he graduated from St. Stanislaus College in Bay St. Louis.

In January, 1968 Sayle was elected Assistant Cashier of the bank. Since January of 1969, he has been acting as Manager of the Gulf National Bank office in Handsboro, a post he will continue to fill in his new capa-

A native of Greenwood, Mississippi, he is married to the former Johne W. Wagner of Bay St. Louis. They reside at 2001 Bradford Drive, Handsboro with their two young sons. Sayle is active in the Harrison County Mental Health Association, the Long Beach Carnival Assn., the Elks Club and St. James Catholic Church.

Carl Fricks for the fine job that they are doing at the home, however we find that the cellings and walls in the home are in a bad state of repair and need

BRIDGE RECOMMENDATIONS "We the Grand Jury would like to recommend to the Board of Supervisors that immediate action be taken to replace the bridge over Bell Creek in Beat Three, which has been out for approximately two and one-half years, which has caused residents in that area to travel an additional sixteen (16) miles one way for the people residing on the East side of the bridge. It has also been called to our attention that since this bridge has been out that the county has been required to divide the school bus load in that area, which has been an additional expense to the County school system for transportation pur-

"We the Grand Jury would also like to recommend to the Board of Supervisors that immediate attention be given to the repairs of the bridges in District #4, namely, Rotten Bayou, Eddie I. Jones, and Carl Moran bridges, all of which need immediate repair work to enable the residents of that area to travel safely over these bridges. It is also recommended that rails be placed on all three of the above named bridges.

'We would like to recommend that the next Grand Jury make a thorough inspection into the possibility of certain residents in the County receiving county warrants, as it has been brought to our attention that they are not performing any services for the County in return for these warrants.

COUNTY EQUIPMENT

"We the Grand Jury would like to recommend that the Board o f Supervisors give consideration to a central location in each beat for the equipment in order to eliminate unnecessary expenses to the

JURY SUMMONS

"The Grand Jury was disturbed to see the number of persons who did not appear for Jury duty after being served with proper legal process. It is our hope that in the future the citizens will live up to their responsibilities and appear for jury service when called and if they fail to do so that the Court in its discretion will take proper action against individuals not appearing or not having valid reasons for not being able to serve.

LAW ENFORCEMENT "We the Grand Jury would like to commend especially Sheriff Fred Curet and his entire staff for the fine job that they are doing in enforcing our laws in the County. We would also like to commend the officer of Bay St. Louis and Waveland for the job that they are doing in enforcing the laws in their respective cities. We would also like to commend Mr. Travis Lott, investigator with the Mississippi Highway Patrol, and patrolmen James Woodfine and John McCardle for their assistance that was given to the cities and the county and also th e written reports they have prepared on the cases that they have investigated here in our County. "We wish to thank your Honor for your able charge at the time we were empaneled.

'We wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Lamar Otis and his staff of able deputies in the preparation of the docket and for his assistance to us.

"We also wish to thank the District Attorney, Boyce Holleman, and Assistant District Attorney, Albert Necaise in the job they did in assisting us during our deliberations. "We have enjoyed our service as grand jurors and we recommend to all of our citizens that they participate when they are called upon to serve as jurors. "And now having concluded

our labor, we beg to be dis-missed finally." Respectfully submitted, EARL BUCKLEY, Foreman

The Commission is the officially recognized review agency for a number of projects involving or proposing to involve the use of Federal financial assistance. In that capacity, the Commission neither approved nor disapproves a proposal, but does determine whether there is any conflict with other proposed public improvements, and discusses such issues as location, scale and related factors. The Commission declined to comment on improvements authorized by the Corps of Engineers for Bayou Cadet (Bayou Caddy). This review had been requested by the Hancock County Planning Commission, with the concurrence of the Board of Supervisors, at a recent meeting. The Commission was in-

A death in the north part of the county and short notice resulted in number being kept small but, as Rev. Flood said, 'Sometimes small groups are better for praying together."

Rev. Flood also said that even though people have differences in religious outlooks they can work together and be friends. "Together we can do things badly needing to be done in this county," Rev. Flood said.

Mauffray, who introduced the principal speaker, said the moon shot had brought all faiths to the prayer meeting. If the shot can bring countries together it will have been well worth while, he concluded.

After outlining how the first two Saturn V booster stages were flight certified at MTF Balch gave some of the benefits to be derived from future space activity. These include a space station equipped to manufacture such items as precise ball bearings, and a further eight moon shots, each having an ability to increase man's knowledge of that place and each showing the way to work in a hostile environment.

The Law Enforcement Assistance provisions of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 had been presented to the District XI L.E.A. Advisory Council, administered by the Commission, by the Hancock County Sheriff's Office. The proposal, if approved, will secure a grant of funds to assist in completing a new facility for operation by Sheriff Curet, matching funds already raised locally. The new facility, proposed to be built in the rear of the existing Court House, will provide detention facilities for females and juveniles, communications equipment, records, and related activities.

KNOW

MORE ABOUT THE HANCOCK COUNTY SCHOOL

AND

HANCOCK NORTH CENTRAL PERSONNEL

Mr. Austin Kirkland was appointed temporary Principal of Hancock North Central School by the Hancock County School Board and Superintendent Eugene Ladner because they know and realize that he conducted a first-class school in Pearlington as Principal of the Charles B. Murphy School. Ho was able to guide and control the students and handle offoctively all situations and problems which arose. He is to be commended highly for his successful operation particularly during the transition of integration which resulted in a negro enrollment constituting 45% of the student body. Mr. Kirkland has signed a contract as Coordinator of Federal Projects and Transportation Supervisor of the Hancock County Schools. This is in reality a promotion. If he had rejected this appointment, he would have continued as Principal of Charles B. Murphy School.

Mr. Roland Ladner has coached basketball since 1950 except for the two years he served in the U.S. Army in the Far East, During his 17 years of coaching he distinguished himself and his teams by qualifying them for State Championship, winning the title one year and District 8 Championship twolvo years. He was also selected in 1957 and 1968 as Head Coach of the South All-Star Team. He is recognized by many Sports writers as one of the top basketball coaches in the State of Mississippi, Mr. Ladner is also highly recommonded for his ability as a math teacher.

Mr. D. J. Martin, teacher of Vocational Agriculture, is vory highly recommended by his State Supervisor, serves as Vice-President of Mississippi State Association of Vo-Agteachers, has consistently trained his boys to acquire top honors in the Future Farmers of America competition, and is presently taking a post-graduate course in vocational guidance at Mississippi State University.

Surely Hancock North Central School is fortunate to have these two exceptional men on their faculty.

You, the voters of Hancock County, elected Eugene Ladner as Superintendent of Education. He is a quiet and studious person and deserves much credit for having applied himself so diligently in learning the intricacies of his job. He has studied school operation and administration and the Mississippi School laws intensively. Mr. Ladner has worked under difficulty and has been harassed and criticized by some envious associates. But he has maintained his dignity and gentlemanly manner at all times. I have worked with him for the past 19 months and am indubitably convinced that he is a responsible person and, if given the chance, will prove to be one of the most efficient and capable superintendents that Hancock County has ever had.

In making this statement, I may be criticised by some of the people who are not thoroughly acquainted with Eigens Ladner. However, I see that with the knowledge gained from many years experience in associating with employees and managers I am in a position to recognize the qualifications of people, PLEASE DON'T UNDERESTIMATE EUGENE

LADNER. He does not talk unnecessarily but is a good listener and observer. Due to his conservative and honest administration of the Hancock County School System, there are adequate funds on hand for the successful operation of our Practically all purchases have been made through the Superintendent's office. When requests for purchases come before Mr. Ladner, he questions their necessity. On minor amounts which are satisfactory to him, he will issue a purchase order. If he has any doubt, he contacts me for my opinion. He also requests my opinion and approval before authorizing major purchases. The effectiveness of this procedure has curtailed many unnecessary purchases.

YES, WE DO HAVE A FINE SCHOOL SYSTEM, much better than a few disgruntled people have tried to discolor. Much of this adverse criticism can be attributed to political-minded people with intentions of running for Superintendent of Education and other offices themselves.

Although I have several years to serve on the School Board, it was my intention to resign last January. But when I learned of the trouble that was brewing I decided to remain on the Board and do my share in supporting our School System and will remain as long as necessary.

OUR CHILDREN OF HANCOCK COUNTY ARE TO BE CON-SIDERED FIRST. All teachers, officials, and public interest should cooperate in elevating our School System instead of trying to destroy it.

For the public's information, the only money I receive is $11.00 attendance fee. This amount and much of my personal income is contributed to the Retarded Children of Hancock County and other charities. So I retain no financial renumeration for my time and efforts which I give to the System. The greatest renumeration that I could possibly receive is that my efforts and contributions play a part in making the. Hancock County School System one of the best in the State

In closing, I appeal to you the people, teachers, chool administrators, and county officials, LET'S GET POLITICS OUT OF THE SCHOOLS, LET'S FORGET ILL FEELINGS. ANIMOSITY, HATRED, AND JEALOUSY: LET'S ALL WORK TOGETHER, COOPERATING FOR THE BENEFIT OF OUR CHILDREN-THE FUTURE GENERATION, OUR SCHOOLS, AND A BETTER IMAGE OF THE ENTIRE COUNTY WILL THIS WE WILL HAVE SERVED OUR PROPILE AND OUR ORD Most Sincerely.

THIS JUST HAPPENS to be one of those days when we feel the urge to strangle every well meaning individual who has ever chortled gleefully: "I'd just love to have your job -writing a column must be lots of fun," Usually we concur, more or less. On occasion, however, we'd prefer something a bit less challenging and find the thought of digging a ditch more infinitely appealing than pounding an unresponsive type-

ONE REASON we're feeling a bit reluctant to begin is that we are compelled to report that ours is still the last state in the nation to legally forbid teaching the theory of evolution in state supported schools. As for the theory, the novelty of the possibility that man ascended or descended from a lower order of animal has long since worn off. It's a sort of to each his own proposition, and no one denies another the right to his belief, whether it be pro or con, We're simply concerned with the fact that the archaic statute still remains a Mississippi law. The case, filed by a Columbus housewife recently, was dismissed in U.S. District Court in Jackson last week on the grounds that state courts offer adequate remedy for the plaintiffs and that this remedy should be exhausted before appealing to the higher tribunal. Socooo - now we'll just have to wait and see what happens next, and in the meantime the Magnolia State will continue to claim the distinction of being last in this small facet of education.

MR, CALVIN PARFAIT OF LAKESHORE, MISS, ACCEPTS DELIVERY OF HIS DEPENDABLE USED CARFROM LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET SALESMAN J.C. KOENENN AS HIS FRIENDS WITNESS THE EVENT.

Mr. Calvin Parfait a commercial fisherman was in the need of a dependable used car. He visited Lamar-Lane Chevrolet in Bay St. Louis as he had been hearing and reading about all the good deals they were giving on new cars. At Lamar-Lane he was greeted by salesman J.C. Koenenn to whom he explained what he was looking for in a good used car. J.C. was able to offer Mr. Parfait a dependable used car and at a price he liked. Mr. Parfait found out that Lamar-Lane Chevrolet also gives very good deals on dependable used cars as well as new cars. If you're looking for a new or used car, the place to go is Lamar-Lane Chevrolet in Bay St. Louis, ask for J.C. Koenenn, he could save you bonette and many, many others. FRAN AND URBAN Stork returned home Sunday after visiting friends in Hattiesburg over the weekend.

JUST IN case we have new bowlers in the community we'll pass on the information that fall leagues will soon be forming for competition at Northgate Lanes in Gulfport. For details as to times, etc. anyone interested may call Myrl (Mrs. Jim) McArthur at 467-7612.

CARMEN (MRS. C.F.) Mitchell is sporting a sensational tan as a reminder of her flying vacation to Boston and Florida.

GRIPE CORNER - Once again the young racers are burning up the asphalt on Central Avenue and the roar of their twin mufflers and screeching of tires should be clearly audible to law officers even if they happen to be cruising many blocks away.

ANIMAL NOTES - Marie and Lou Hart are giving what they hope is only a temporary home to a liver and white Walker hound, Daughter Noel has nursed the animal, apparently a very recent mother, back to health and now they are hoping that the owner will read this note and claim his or her pet.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS A-LONG THE WAY - A straw hatted couple calmly riding along on a bicycle built for two; tiny twin sail boats, one red, one bright blue, bobbing in unison upon the rippling whitecaps; a pair of fat pidgoons pecking placidly at a pile of oyster shells and the ominous rumble of thunder in the distance as the almost daily ration of billowing blue-black clouds appear upon the horizon.

Miss Victoria Castor Weds David Stallard

July 19, at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Northwood Hills, Gulf-port, Miss Victoria Lyn Castor, daughter of Mr. and

Mrs. Tullus Robert Castor Guifport, became the bride of David Julian Stallard. sen of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Stallard of Norton, Virginia, Rev. Noel Prendergast officiated at the noon Nuptial Mass. Michael Smith and Raymond

Walker served as altar boys. Arrangements of white gladioli, mums and daistes decorated the altar. Potted palms and greenery formed a background for the seven-branched candelabra on each side of the altar table.

Mrs. Margaret Wheat, organist, provided the traditional nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an Empire gown of re-embroidered French lace with high neck and elbow length sleeves encrusted with seed pearls. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a headpiece of organza roses and daisies and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and daisies centered with a white orchid.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Catherine Castor, She wore a floor length gown of yellow shantung designed along the same lines as the bride's dress. The empire waistline was accented with a band of white embroidered daisies. A bow of yellow shantung and daisies formed her headpiece and she carried a cascade of pink sweetheart roses and Margarite daisies.

Mrs. Don Earls of Lexington, Va., sister of the groom, served as matron of honor and Misses Lillian and Cynthia Travirca of Bay St. Louis, cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids.

pieces identical to the maid of honor; and carried nosegays of pink sweetheart roses and Margarite daisies.

Clifford L. Stallard attended his son as best man, Groomsmen were Don Earls, Lexington; Lloyd Stroud, Gulfport; and Robert Stark of Biloxi, Waymon Carr, cousin of the bride, Bay St. Louis and Robert Eyer of Biloxi served a s ushers.

Following the wedding. reception was held in the Parish Hall. The bride's table, covered with a lace cloth over yellow. was centered with a threetiered wedding cake trimmed with pale yellow roses and green leaves and topped by a silver cross with locked wedding rings. Silver candelabra and arrangements of daisies completed the decorations. For traveling, the bride wore a navy and white outfit with red, white and blue accessories and an orchid corsage. After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in Biloxi.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Culley Jr., Marcia and Whelan Culley III, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barnett III and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rousseau Sr., Jean Jr. and Michelle; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Spotorno and family, all of Memphis, Tenn., Miss Jeane E. Riley of Storm Lake, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Stallard, Mrs.

Here is one given me by an old timer which incorporates a bottle of beer for unusual appeal. Remember that in beer and wine cookery the alcohol content always cooks away, leaving only the flavors imparted by the addition.

Mix 2 cups cornmeal, 1/2 cup flour (unsifted), 1 tablespoon salt, and 3 tablespoons baking powder. Beat 2 eggs and work into the corn meal mixture along with 2/3 cup chopped onion and I bottle warm beer. Take out by the spoonful and fry in deep fat in which fish have been fried. They're good, I make them myself.

Another thing good to know, when a fish scaler is not available try scaling fish with a regular kitchen fork. It works.

Most of the fish being caught along the railroad bridge called sheepshead are not sheepshead. They are drum fish. Sheepshead have teeth and drum do not. Both are good eating when not too big. Bake or broiled if large.

It's Been Hot...

A sustained heat wave has driven our summer temperatures to record high levels - and it doesn't cool off ... even at night.

When it's extremely hot, day and night, air conditioners run almost constantly, so it has taken a lot of electricity to keep you cool this summer. But it sure beats the heat, and when you consider how much electricity you have really used, the cost per kilowatt hour has been mighty low.

Electricity is still the biggest bargain in the family budget.
